WE WELCOME DR. EARLE L. WILSON

Dr. Wilson is the General Superintendent Emeritus, a title he was given in 2008 after serving as General Superintendent of the Wesleyan

Church for over twenty years. Wilson received his Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Theology degrees from Penn Wesleyan College in 1956 and earned a Masters of Theology degree from Princeton Theological Seminary. He taught at Penn Wesleyan College (later, United Wesleyan College) for twenty years, and served as President of United Wesleyan College for twelve years before the school merged with Houghton College in 1989. On November 5, 1955, Wilson married Sylvia M. Beck. He is the father of three children: Debarah, Stephen, and Colleen, and he now has eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
